

I strongly oppose weakening the restrictions on ownership. Private enterprise and competition are the forces behind U.S. success. Monopoly or any trend in that direction will reverse two hundred years of progress. Please, do not weaken the standards. In my opinion, they are already too weak and should actually be strengthened.